New York Stock Market

ie irregularity in movements of stocks to-day, the tendency continued pward. Speculative sentiment re-ained as cheerful as it has been since mained as cheerful as it has been since the rebound in prices last week, and although the demand for stocks was not pressing, there was a ready market for such offerings as were made. Conservatism prevailed on both sides of the market. In spite of the strong tone of the last week, buil operators were not inclined to attempt ambitions undertakings. Traders on the short side, impressed by the better tone of the market and the evidences that the heavy liquidating has been completed, acted with caution. One of the chief reasons which impelled traders to hold off was the belief that definite news regarding the attitude of the Federal court toward Union Pacifics dissolution plans will be received within the next few days. ed within the next few days, arious rumors were circulated condinks, and the latest one to the ef-t that the court probably would ap-nt a receiver for Union Pacific's dings of Southern Pacific was asso-ted with a sharp dip in prices just one the close, which cut down the ns made earlier in the day. man bankers were in this market with offers of 5-1-2 per cent for day money, but were unable to funds at that figure. The Bank of Germany's statement showed the atgest gold reserve in the history of hat institution, and bankers here were if the opinion that Berlin was reaching a position which would enable it to weather the mid-year settlement without serious difficulties.
